

Cancellation Policy

In order to hike the Inca Trail our reservation as a group needs to be booked 5 months prior to the event and paid in full per person.

Because the Peru trip is a private and personalized event geared to a certain number of women, there are no full refunds 6 weeks prior to trip (February 13th-March 27st). If you must cancel after November 27th and before February 13th 2010 deadline, you will still owe a fee of $1600 to cover your pre-reserved flights to and from Lima to Cusco, tickets for the Inca Trail and Machu Picchu and other personal pre-booked events that are non refundable and non transferable.

You can however credit the rest of your monies paid to the following year's trip or toward any event sponsored by Goddess International Inc. Or you may sell your reservation to another woman who has participated in Boot Camp for Goddesses and or Sierra Bender Yoga Teacher Training only.

If you cancel one week prior to trip March 20th,2010 there will be no refunds.
